Alma Mater

Here beside Pacific waters
On our fair Kauai
Stands our school
Amidst the ironwoods
And the cane fields nigh.

Kauai High School, we'll be loyal;
Let your praises sing.
Hail to thee, O Kauai High School,
Loud your praises ring.

Many hours of play and study
In our glad school days
Memories shall twine around us,
Lovingly always.

Dearest darling Edie -

Remember waking up early every morning to come to school? Remember studying for all those tests almost every day and making all those speeches and writing all those compositions for Mr. Balis? I guess you'll always remember this junior year, huh? It's really hard to believe that the year has passed by so fast, isn't it? Soon you'll be a "mighty senior" and you'll be the one to graduate. Well, next year, I'll be sure to give you a really good graduation present — too bad I can't give you the thing you want most in the world! Ahhh!

It has really been wonderful knowing you all these years and I hope our friendship will never end. I'm really happy to have a real and true friend like you. If everyone in the world were as you are, I'm sure this would be a really wonderful world! Now, don't get swell-headed, okay? Or I'll have to poke your head like a balloon!

Have a most enjoyable summer and don't slave yourself too much at the canner. Have fun spending all that money, and if you don't need any of it, just give it to me! I'll be seeing you around this summer —
Love,
Ayako

Pal kien,

It was just a week having you again in one of my classes. I'll never forget how hard we studied for potential students in other subjects.
Boy! we sure had it this year. Study hard — oh! This year. Hard too believe we'll be mighty Juniors! Worst part of it — we don't look like Juniors.

During the summer — hope you have a swell, wonderful vacation — have fun, eh! When you see me around the place don't play stuck up — at least smile or say "Hi"! Don't worry when I see you I won't play stuck up.

Dearest Edie,
~~Since this year I've come to know you very~~

Foreword

Blood, sweat, tears, and occasional peals of laughter over those formulas, dissections, grammar — the vicarious trips to different parts of the world — past and present, the clacking of business machines, the endless body building exercises, the silent pride over that first "A"; — the mad rush for chow at noon, those blessed ten minutes of break at recess, fleeting moments of pressure rushing through traffic jams to classes with no time to exchange a "Hi," those stolen seconds for chatter and cat-naps in the far corners of study halls; — the secret notes on scrap paper, the "professional" methods of cheating, the joys of horseplay, the inevitable class cutting and tardy excuses; — the madness of cheering the team on to victory, and those dreamy proms; — all taking place within the walls of learning until the long awaited signal sounds off, "Pau hana, see you again." —

These are Our Moments, Our Moods, recaptured and reproduced in your book of memories, Ke Kuhiau, 1959.

Kauai High's Youth

An enthusiastic and able leader, Mr. Isamu Miyoshi, as principal of Kauai High School, has unselfishly given time and effort toward upholding the standards and morals of our school. He guides the administration department and student body, not only as principal but as counselor, father, and teacher.

Often seen at football and basketball games and other interscholastic activities, he has set important examples in sportsmanship for us. His humorous anecdotes and "short" pep talks have become a significant part of our assemblies.

Mr. Miyoshi is also an untiring and conscientious member in community and service activities. His present responsibilities entail participation as: Territorial President of the Hawaii High School Athletic Association, Director of Adult Education on Kauai, Treasurer of the Hawaii Education Association, program chairman of the Kauai Lions Club, member of the Board of Directors at the Lihue Hongwanji, committeeman for Boy Scout troop 83 of Kapaia, and member of the Kauai Humane Society, which he has served for the past five years.

Behind his present success in community, service, and school affairs lies an incomparable history of commendable activities. After serving as president of the senior class of Kauai High School in 1928, he continued his education at the University of Hawaii. Starting his climb to principalship, he taught for eighteen years at Eleele, Waimea, Waipahu and Farrington. He has been principal of Mana School, Anahola School, Kaumakani School, and Kauai High School. Throughout the years, he has contributed his sincere and undying efforts for the promotion of mutual understanding among teachers, pupils and parents.

To a man whose feats words cannot justifiably describe, the Ke Kuhiau staff,, on behalf of the student body, proudly dedicates our 1959 year book — Mr. Isamu Miyoshi.

SUGGESTIONS WERE HELPFUL

Mr. Miyoshi suggests ways to improve the campus to Girls League President, Gail Kobayashi.

Writing on each page seems different and good but gosh

Their Guiding Hand was ever present to keep us from taking a wrong turn. With great patience and understanding, they led us through classroom work, tests, research, and experimentation to complete another year of learning and extracurricular activity participation, which summed a year of achievement in many ways. When facing times of discouragement and dismay, they were right at hand to offer us their guidance and most appreciated encouragement. Through their words of wisdom and truthfulness, they taught us diligence, honesty, and willingness.

Our Moments And Moods

The smooth running Red Raider Campus was efficiently guided by the administration headed by our principal, Mr. Isamu Miyoshi. The year, with its many accomplishments, wouldn't have been successful without our hardworking staff.

Mr. Miyoshi, although a very busy man, always offered a helping hand in guidance and planning. He was known for his explicit solutions to our problems.

Assisting Mr. Miyoshi was our capable vice-principal and counselor, Mrs. Barbara Mant. She helped students in choosing programs for further education. The records were also kept up-to-date.

Working untiringly with the administration, Mrs. Dora Muranaka, our efficient secretary, facilitated registration and kept school materials in order.

Our school librarian, Mrs. Marjorie Thiis, kept books and magazines up-to-date for the reading pleasure of everyone. Her warm personality made it enjoyable for the library training students.

Our hardworking cafeteria manager, Miss Misao Nakamura, saw that the lunches were prepared, and supervised the cafeteria workers and student helpers.

The English Department was very active during the past year.

Among the many studies and activities the English Department took care of the May Day program and an experimental program of reading to help develop skills in comprehension. Department members required book reports, encouraged reading through digests in the Ka Welo O Kala, and concentrated heavily on the integration of the four basic skills, namely reading, writing, speaking, and listening. Dr. Noda, Director of Secondary Education, and Dr. Kasdon, Special Reading Consultant, came to assist the English teachers with the reading program, which gave us an improved curriculum in English.

And Challenging Experiences

Enthusiastic freshmen entered a world of new experiences as they entered Kauai High School. Many of these experiences were mixed with fun, anxiety, and success.

Under the capable leadership of President Jerry Terui, Vice-President Arlene Kashima, Secretary Karen Sato, and Treasurer Paul Yukimura and the help of Mrs. Ethel Kim, the class of '62 mapped plans for its first year at Kauai High School.

A school year never goes by without the traditional class week. Each day was set aside for a specific theme. The highlight of their week was the crowning of the Freshman Cupids during the Freshman Dance.

With diligence, sincerity and enthusiasm, the "green" freshmen completed their first year in high school in grand style, doing well in study, work and play.

Freshmen, gaining new experiences during their first year in high school, found competition rather keen in general science, algebra and other areas of study.

Displaying their vim, vigor and vitality at the pep rallies, their voices filled the gymnasium as they cheered for the team. Taking second place in the pep club class contest, they found their place among the upperclassmen.

The Freshmen observed the traditional class week with each day set aside for a special event. The Freshman dance in the gymnasium met overwhelming success through the cooperativeness of the students. The class picnic climaxed this week of fun-filled activities.

Pitching in with the work at the Raiders Roundup Carnival, they proved their ability to work together and help whenever needed.

Key To Success

Two years of high school life successfully completed, the aggressive sophomores looked forward to their year as "jolly juniors." Following their motto, "Education is the Key to Success," the sophomores displayed skills and talents by taking active part in school work.

Sophomore year was not reflective of its title "suffering sophomores." Many students found the school year filled with surprises and little joys, some of which included assemblies, dances, and lunches. Some of these joys helped them plow through their final exams, memorizing of difficult biology terms, learning new formulas in geometry, and remembering new places on the maps.

Leaders of this class were Niles Kageyama, President; Rudy Raralio, Vice-President; Patricia Antonio, Secretary; Calvin Fujii, Treasurer. The class of '61 proved its might in the classroom as well as in organizations as Future Homemakers of America, Pep Club and Future Farmers of America.

Sophomore Week was a memorable one. Culminating the week's activities were the crowning of Sophomore Sweethearts and the picnic.

Though lessons were more difficult, they also enjoyed more activities and shared their abilities in school functions. The Sophomore Week, class dance and the sophomore edition of the Ka Welo were some of the many class projects undertaken.

Uneven click-clacks could be heard from the Typing 1 & 2 classes as each student tried to reach his goal in typing fifty words per minute. Amid the clanking of the keys, each shared in the joy of learning to type with speed and precision.

Along with all the work and play as sophomores, every member of the class of '61 gained the satisfaction of completing another year and looking on to the next.

Experiences And Joys

With great expectations the Juniors entered Kauai High School for their third year. Paving the way for them were officers Eric Shinseki, President; Gary Yamamoto, Vice President; Elaine Higashi, secretary, and Edith Nomi, treasurer.

Outstanding leaders Eric Shinseki represented Hawaii as Goodwill Ambassador to New Jersey, and Glen Terui represented Kauai High School as a delegate to the Territorial High School Government Association Conference.

Helping in the tedious job of preparing for the KHS Carnival, the Class of 1960 participated in the sale of goods. With all this, the long-awaited Junior Class Week arrived, filled with fun and laughter. The highlighting event of the year was the Junior Promenade with all its preparation and excitement. Preparing for this gala event were Edith Nomi and Milton Valera, co-chairmen.

This climaxed a wonderful year for the Juniors, and now they are looking forward to a more memorable year as Mighty Seniors.

GREEN AS COULD BE

Entering the gates of Kauai High School in the fall of 1955 were freshmen from the towns of Hanamaulu, Lihue, Koloa, Puhi, Lawai, and Kalaheo. They found difficulty at first in adjusting to high school life, but as time passed, they became acquainted with the routine.

Freshmen chose as their motto, "To be rather than to seem"; as their class flower, the vanda; and as their colors, lavender and white. The year was lightened with their first dance, picnic and luncheon.

SUFFERING SOPHOMORES

As veterans, students found out why they were called "Suffering Sophomores," through taxing loads of homework. They plowed their way through a variety of "tough" subjects. Biology, geometry, algebra and English seemed to bring heart-rending moans and groans.

Dark clouds of gloom vanished, when the day of the Sophomore Dance, "Young Love," arrived. Chosen to reign over the dance were Elsie Ichimasa and Patrick Layosa.

Than To Seem

HELPING HAND

Miss Ohama helps annual members Jane Muranaka and Alvin Tanaka get their work done in order to meet their deadlines.

JOLLY JUNIORS

This exciting year brought out many joys and talents, both in scholarship and athletics. Many students ordered their class rings. They eagerly awaited their first formal in April, when Queen Juliette Garcia and King Patrick Layosa reigned over the memorable evening.

Many were inducted into the National Honor Society on the basis of leadership, scholarship, character and service. On the athletic field, juniors who saw a lot of action in sports were Karl Matsumura, Marvin Yamauchi, Russell Taba, Gerald Tsukamoto, Aurelio Ramelb, and Angel Madrid.

MIGHTY SENIORS

At last the fourth and final year of high school had arrived. Picture taking and career day were some of the activities that indicated signs of graduation.

Tears of joy and sadness were shed on Commencement night. This was the finale of our four years of high school life.

HOMEWARD BOUND

Gloria Nishihara, Gerald Hashimoto, Nora Nakata, and Roy Morimoto beam smilingly, as school closes for another day.

FIRE! FIRE!

DECEMBER

Laughter, joy, and merry making resounded the campus, as the holiday season approached. Once again Christmas came in the traditional Hawaiian style of sunshine and flowers. Enthusiastically, seniors prepared for the season by giving greeting cards and decorating home-rooms for the annual Christmas parties.

To help hospital patients enjoy Christmas, members of the Nurses Career Club made wreaths and tray favors for Mahelona Hospital. The Junior Red Cross did its share by making wreaths for the Wilcox Memorial Hospital. After days of tedious practicing, our Christmas play, "Mele Kalikimaka, Kalani", was performed for the student body on December 19. Seniors who contributed to the success of the play were Elizabeth Ferreira, Carolina Ochoco, Kathleen Texeira, Joseph Vierra, Josephine Duque, Russell Taba and Dennis Miyoshi.

APRIL

Again the winds and showers of April prevailed the campus of Kauai High, making it an enjoyable and prosperous month.

The Raiders Round-Up, the annual Carnival at Kauai High School, took place. Many enjoyed themselves at the carnival, making it "Bigger and Better". Rides, games, food booths and the variety show were the main attractions of this gala affair. Much of the success of the carnival was due to the help of seniors, who manned booths, and the indispensable help and guidance of faculty and parents. A scrip selling contest was also a contributing factor to the success of the Round-Up.

Preparations for the May day program were also held throughout this month.

MAY

Excitedly and in great elegance, the Mighty Seniors attended their last high school dance, the long awaited Senior Prom. The decorations, music, and senior court will long be remembered by these future leaders.

Tables were set with delicious food when the annual Senior Banquet was held at Kauai Inn. A final touch of dancing added to this momentous event.

An Awards Assembly for deserving members of the Class of '59 was held to promote extracurricular activities. Na Lima Kokua certificates were handed out to those who gave outstanding service to the school; athletic letters were awarded the boys who participated in football, basketball, baseball, and track.

On May Day, seniors fluttered about, decked with beautiful leis. Two members of the Class of '59 reigned as King and Queen over this festive day.

As activities came and passed, May closed her doors, bringing the Seniors a step closer to the world of work.

JUNE

Having been fully adapted to high school life, Seniors prepared themselves for the great horizon before them. Numerous opportunities awaited these on-coming graduates. Many who planned to major in engineering took such courses as physics, trigonometry, radio, mechanical drawing and the special class in engineering. Prospective teachers plowed through chemistry, Spanish, geometry, speech, and algebra. News-writing and annual production were taken by future journalists.

Although many have different vocations in mind, they all have one goal. Their task is to gain success, a task worth working for. With heads held high and footsteps firm, the Class of 1959 walked down the aisle to an even greater aisle, the aisle of life.

The Kauai High School Student Body was represented by its members in every phase of school life.

Student committees, guided by chairmen who were appointees of the president, engineered all major events and activities on the Red Raider grounds.

The Territorial High School Government Association Convention was held in Honolulu during the Thanksgiving holidays and was attended by President James Yasuda and Vice President Glen Terui. A discussion of problems and plans for student government activities was the purpose of this meeting.

December 6, 1958, brought "Little Star," the Student Body Dance. Mr. and Miss Prep Football, Karl Matsumura and Joyce Mizuo, were selected to reign over this affair.

On April 10 and 11, a second Raiders Round-up Carnival was held after much planning and preparation. The cooperation of students and alumni made it a successful and memorable project.

Capable student leaders, assisted by advisers, Miss Nancy Okano and Mr. Edward Bales, led the student body through an eventful year.

JUDY YAGUCHI
Chief of Police

The Campus Police Officers were constantly on the alert for law-breakers. No student violated a law and got away with it.

These C.P.O.'s could be seen keeping watch at the lunch line everyday. Hungry students found no chance at any time to cut into the line to get to their lunches faster.

Collecting lunch money was another duty carried on by the officers during the lunch hour. Chief Judy Yaguchi kept daily watch to see that everything went smoothly.

At football games, officers in black and white kept vigil in clear or stormy weather. In the box-office, other members collected tickets at all interscholastic home games.

Maintaining law and order on and off the campus was the purpose of these Campus Police Officers.

A student committing his first offense was quickly reprimanded but a second warning meant an arrest and a summons to appear in the school court.

After a student had been arrested by a C.P.O., it was the duty of the court to find him innocent or guilty. Chief Justice Myra Muraoka, with the help of the jury and the clerks, kept the wheels of justice running smoothly at Kauai High School.

The court met once a month to convict all those who were guilty and clear those who were innocent. Punishment was given according to the seriousness of the offense.

With Mr. Richard Suzui advising the group, members of the jury were two representatives from each class. The two clerks and bailiff were seniors who kept accounts of all records and named the accused.

Everyday, room 7 was the scene of busy activity as staff members were seen bustling about to meet publication deadlines. It seemed as though the 50-minute period seemed to be too short to get anything done.

It was hard to believe that at the beginning of the school year, these students knew nothing about bodies, layouts, and headings. With the help of second-year students Jane Muranaka, James Yasuda, and Norma Palacay, everyone soon carried on his work like a professional.

Deadlines were horrors! Hectic figures grew worried and frustrated, as dates loomed before them. But no one shirked his work; everyone did his share of writing, identifying, and typing.

"Chief Jane" daily supervised the work of the staff through its worries and anxieties. She was a familiar figure standing before the group, explaining and illustrating.

Only through the hard work of these students, annual production was possible.

The Ka Welo O Kala's staff was somewhat smaller this year as compared to previous years, with the majority being newly recruited newshounds. However, the quality of the paper, due to the combined efforts of all, was rated superior by student subscribers.

The heads, who exerted additional efforts to meeting bi-monthly deadlines, expenditures, and covering those beats were: Melanie Toyofuku, editor; Priscilla Taba, associate editor; and Carolina Ochoco, business manager. Miss Henning advised.

The increase in subscriptions, doubling that of last year's, indicated the commendable efforts of the staff.

In spite of a busy schedule, the group managed an excursion to Mahelona Hospital in November to obtain information on tuberculosis, in order to boost the sale of Christmas seals.

Several of the members attended the SCOOP Conference in Honolulu on February 21 to broaden their scope on newswriting.

Able-bodied FFA'ers looked forward to many exciting events, including service and money-making projects.

In November the boys held a successful lau-lau sale, a project to send two delegates to the Territorial FFA Conference in Hilo.

With the Yule-tide season, the FFA carried on its annual project of acting as postman for the school.

All members eagerly awaited and enjoyed the District Conference, which was held at Wai-mea High School during February.

A banquet climaxed this prosperous year.

The energetic leaders of the Pep Club sparked the year with many new activities.

With the onset of the football season, Pep Club members boosted the team by waving streamers and selling banners. To add more spirit to our pep rallies, a School Spirit Contest was held in which the seniors won the perpetual trophy for the year. Comedy filled skits were held at pep assemblies and in addition novelty Raider pins were sold to inspire students to back their team.

When basketballs took the initial bounce on the court, the club held a color day when all students were requested to wear red and white.

As bats made contact and cinders flew, many original and enjoyable activities swept the campus. These events contributed to a really "hep" pep club this year.

Students practiced untiringly during lunch periods toward top placements as song and cheer leaders for the coming school year.

The National Honor Society, Kauai High School Chapter, held its fall induction service in the gymnasium on Friday, November 14, 1958, at which eight seniors and three juniors were formally inducted. This was the first time that induction was held in the presence of the entire student body.

After the ceremony, a luncheon was held in the school cafeteria for inductees and their parents, who were also given a tour around the campus. Induction into the only honorary society in campus is a great honor, as membership is based on character, high scholastic standing, leadership, and superior service with earnest cooperation.

The members pledged themselves to uphold the high purposes of the Society, by striving in every way through work and deed to make its ideals the ideals of their school and lives.

Apryle Motoda presided over meetings, assisted by Helen Morioka, Vice President; Myra Muraoka, Secretary; and Patrick Hada, Treasurer.

Guiders Of Youth

The Oren E. Long Club of the Future Teachers of America, advised by Mr. Kataoka, was organized to keep students who planned to become teachers, well informed on the ideals and practices required of the profession.

With eagerness, club members participated in activities leading to teaching careers. They viewed films on methods and took over classes at Lihue School during their excursion. Ordering college catalogs and F.T.A. pins were the main projects undertaken by the organization.

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors were invited to join the Future Teachers of America.

The election and installation of officers ended this successful year.

"Service to the school" was the objective of the Girls' League. Their calendar was filled with many activities, making this a successful year.

They began their service program by making Thanksgiving tray favors for patients in the Wilcox Memorial Hospital. Whenever a student was hospitalized, flowers were sent by these girls. With Mrs. Marjorie Thiis directing, the girls unselfishly gave up their time by serving at the NHS luncheons and P.T.A. dinners.

Service To The Community

The Future Nurses Club, directed by Mrs. Barbara Mant, rendered many service projects throughout the school year. These projects included the folding of newspaper bags, which were used by patients of Mahelona Memorial Hospital, the selling of Christmas seals, and the making of wreaths and special tray favors.

During October the future Florence Nightingales were hostesses to Mrs. Abel, a teacher at St. Francis Hospital, who spoke on different phases of a nursing career.

In November senior members were given the Practical Nurses Test.

Language Of Mankind

Under the conduction of Mr. William Steinohrt, the band practiced untiringly, and their efforts were soon rewarded with music that commanded a listening audience. Many hours were spent in preparation for the football season and pep assemblies.

Sweet music could be heard from the young voices, which made up our chorus. At the Christmas play, voices sang in harmony. Practice sessions seemed quite tedious at first, but their final renditions portrayed their fine hidden ability and talent.

Youthful voices in practice echoed through the campus. Endless drills helped develop promising voices. Harmonizing "Silver Bells" and "Mele Kalikimaka" with the student body, their voices colored the Christmas Assembly.

SWING IT!

ALL THE WAY

Gerald Tsukamoto sprints through the arms of a tackler to score on a 34 yard run.

KAUAI-KAMEHAMEHA

Traveling only once this year, the Red Raiders were guests to the Kamehameha Warriors at the Kamehameha school grounds. The game was held at the Kam football field, which was the homecoming game for the Kam Warriors.

The Raiders kicked-off to the mighty Warriors, who shed blood in the first quarter, when they crossed the Raiders' goal line, on a pass by Earl Dye. But the determined lads of Nawiliwili kept on fighting, with Gerald Tsukamoto's plunging and a pass from Aurelio Ramelb to Karl Matsumura, to take the lead at half-time, 13-6.

In the fourth and final period, Ernest Puni dazzled his way through the Warriors' eleven on a 38 yard run which was the final score for the Raiders. At the end of four quarters, the scoreboard read, Kauai High Red Raiders 20 and Kamehameha Warriors 6.

KAUAI-KAIMUKI

The game against the visiting Kaimuki Bulldogs was the second pre-season game for the Red Raiders.

During the first quarter, the Raiders were unable to move offensively, and the opponents scored first on a pass by William Kiesel to Norman Lau.

In the second quarter the Raiders came back on an aerial pass from Quarterback Aurelio Ramelb to Roberto Butacan and a conversion by Russell Taba to tie the score at 7-7.

In the final minutes of the game, Quarterback Aurelio Ramelb tossed another pass to Karl Matsumura and Taba's conversion was good for the fourth time to end the scoring of the Raiders at 28-7, in favor of Kauai High.

KAUAI-WAIMEA

The 1958 KIF season opened with the defending Red Raider Champs facing Waimea Menehunes. The game was well fought, with both sides trying their best to win. The Raiders came up from behind to trip the Menehunes 28-21.

KAUAI-KAPAA

Continuing their victories, the Raiders defeated the Kapaa Clippers 38-12. All-Star players Gerald Tsukamoto and Russell Taba showed their great football abilities in this contest.

KAUAI-WAIMEA

During the second round, the Raiders seemed to be well on their way to another championship. The second game found Waimea fighting back with all they had in a see-saw game. The Raiders won by a score of 18-12.

KAUAI-KAPAA

Victorious over Waimea in the previous game, the Raiders plunged to the KIF championship by crushing the Clippers 13-6. Outstanding performances were made by Quarterback Aurelio Ramelb and Fullback Gerald Tsukamoto.

BENEFIT GAME

The Kapaa Clippers, in the KIF Benefit Game, barely managed to defeat the champion Kauai High Red Raiders 13 to 6 in a see-saw battle. By defeating Kauai High, the Clippers accomplished something that they had not been able to do in the past. This was the first time, that Kapaa High ever beat Kauai High.

ALL-STARS

Russell Taba was the outstanding line-man, and Gerald Tsukamoto was the outstanding back in the KIF League. Other outstanding players on the team were Aurelio Ramelb, Karl Matsumura, Lawrence Agena, Albert Sugano, Marvin Yamauchi, John Bandmann, Melvin Yoshioka, Ernest Puni, and Patrick Layosa.

DIG, LAYOSA, DIG!

Halfback Patrick Layosa romps around Kapaa's right end and zooms across the goal line to score.

Keenness And Speed

The Kauai High Junior Varsity team, made up of fifteen or more freshman and sophomore boys, took third place in the KIF basketball league this year. Under the coaching of Mr. George Malama, these future varsity players learned the fundamentals and skills of playing good basketball and put them to practice, when they played with the J.V. teams from Waimea and Kapaa. Sophomores Julian Fernandez, Richard Fujimoto, Timothy Albao and Daniel Tomas led the team on the basketball court.

Despite having only a few returning lettermen on the team, the fighting five enjoyed a thrill-packed season.

In the first round, cagesters Joseph Polan, George Yoshioka, Angel Madrid, Aurelio Ramelb, and Malcolm Ikeda, displayed remarkable speed, skill, and teamwork. Paced by these veterans, Raiders made a terrific comeback, victorious over two games following two losses.

The first round of the KIF planted KHS with a two and two record, having outdone Waimea and Kapaa once each. The second round met with 3 losses, twice to Waimea, once to Kapaa, one victory for Raider cagesters.

Two victories marked the pre-season games. In their first outing, they outscored University High of Honolulu, 37 to 24. Raiders again came out as victors over the Mid-Pacific Owls, 51 to 49.

The high-spirited Raiders completed their basketball season with five victories and five losses.

KAUAI HIGH VS. KAPAA HIGH

Coach Akio Kubota's Red Raiders displayed mid-season form in shutting out the Kapaa Clippers 6-0. This happened March 6 at the Kapaa Diamond.

Centerfield Lawrence Suan led the victors with a double and two singles. James Yasuda and Angel Madrid each got a double. For the losers, no one was able to pair hits.

KAUAI HIGH VS. WAIMEA HIGH

The Kauai High School Red Raiders downed the Waimea Menehunes 5-3 in an interscholastic game on March 20, at the Isenberg field.

Kauai clinched the game in the same inning with Aurelio Ramelb and Lawrence Suan getting on via single and walk. Karl Matsumura drove in both runners with a hit to right, making the score 4-3. Then, Yasuda drove in Matsumura with a smash to center to end the scoring at 5-3.

KAUAI HIGH VS. KAPAA HIGH

The defending champion Red Raiders advanced one step closer to another championship, as they dumped the Kapaa Clippers 11-4 on March 25, at the Isenberg field.

Kenneth Kawabata singled in the third inning and advanced to second when Glenn Shimizu walked. Wally Iwasaki drove him in with a single to make the score 5-0.

Kenneth Kawabata and Aurelio Ramelb paced the Raiders' attack with 3 hits apiece.

The Kauai High School track team was instructed by Coach Edward Bales and co-captains Gerald Tsukamoto and Juanito Alayvilla.

Long after school hours were spent in endless practice sessions, which were not in vain, for the boys were rewarded with outstanding results.

Boys went in to compete in the 440, 220, 100 yard dashes, 880 yard run, running broad jump, high jump and shot-put.

Returning lettermen were Gerald Tsukamoto, Angel Madrid, Lawrence Suan, Patrick Layosa, Albert Sugano, Ernest Puni, and Niles Kageyama. These trackmen, with the help of the remainder of the squad, did a fine job in both the Rotary and KIF seasons.

In September, freshmen and sophomores played field hockey. During October and November, they had soccer and speedball, and in December, freshmen covered Social Dancing. In January, sophomores practiced and perfected rhythmic movements. In February, freshmen and sophomores played basketball. Throughout the month of March, they passed physical fitness testing. During April and May, both classes practiced stunts and tumbling. In May and June, freshmen played softball, while sophomores enjoyed volleyball, thus ending a successful year.

Besides having physical workouts, the girls had lessons in health.

SOCCER ENTHUSIASTS

Mr. Malama's sophomore boys are enthusiastically engaged in a game of soccer.

Under the professional guidance and direction of Mr. George Malama, the boys' P.E. classes had a program of fun and excitement.

The boys learned the official playing rules of basketball, football, and soccer. They put these rules and skills into practice in the gym and out on the field. A series of physical fitness examinations kept them active throughout the spring months. The examinations determined the fitness of our boys, as compared with other boys across the nation.

Following all of these activities, Mr. Malama's program included such sports and areas of study as soccer, bowling, track, volleyball, softball, swimming, skin-diving safety rules, and health.

Also included in the boys' physical education program was first aid, which was taught by Colonel Frank Adams. Through these sessions, they acquired the "know-how" of first aid.

LOOK LIVELY!

"Ready, 1, 2, 3, 4," calls out Anthony Kuroiwa to the P. E. boys, as they do their daily exercises.

"Cutest, Sweetest" Edie -

It's have been wonderful to know you all through these three years of high school years. Too bad you can visit

If you know what I mean. All too soon it was over. So much was gained with the passing of the months and before we knew it, it was time to close the book on another school year. The assemblies, excursion, school plays, class activities, and dances are but a few of the many moments we shared and will always cherish. They are all a part of this past year . . . our moments, our moods.

I know you are working in the cannery this summer. Don't wear out your body before school starts next September by eating those nine apples. Because you are not working for eating but for money. That true? Which side do you prefer eating or working?

Will you will enjoy your vacation since summer is right around the corner.

I know you are busy enough to pass in all of your subjects. I would like to see you go on to the next grade not staying in the same grade. See you in good condition next year. A few minutes before the bell will be ringing so I'll close for now.

Bye now!!
Edie

PROGRAMS! PROGRAMS!

Miss Ohama and Miss Kanenaka share laughter with Leonard Ah You, as he buys a program.

WOW!! AH!!

Mr. Charles Kaneyama thrilled students with magic during Sight Conservation Week.

POSTER WINNERS

Melanie Toyofuku and JoAnn Fujii placed in the Sight Conservation Week Poster Contest from Kauai's three high schools.

SEPTEMBER, OCTOBER, NOVEMBER

Football season marked the beginning of a new school year for everyone. Hectic moments were spent by the students and teachers, as they sold programs at games.

As assemblies appeared in the schedule of events, joy tinted students' faces. Sight Conservation Week brought several speakers and a magician. The skit, "Pandora's Magic Chest," produced and played by students of Kauai High School, highlighted the Community Chest Assembly.

The Student Body was represented by Glen Terui and James Yasuda in the Territorial High School Government Association Conference, while members of the Ke Kuhiau staff attended the Associated League of High School Annuals Conference.

November meant joy for many and dread for others, as report cards came out, ending the first quarter.

SIGHT CONSERVATION WEEK

Mrs. Chang demonstrates before the student body, Ozzie's ability as a seeing-eye dog.

Winter Festivities Enlivened

ORATORS

Leaving Kauai for the Speech Festival are Priscilla Taba, Melinda Texeira, Sharon Akama, Ofelia Curammeng, Melanie Toyofuku, Edith Nomi and Miss Kanenaka.

REIGNING COUPLE

Joyce Mizuo and Karl Matsumura receive honors at the Student Body Dance, Little Star, as queen and king.

NEW TEACHERS

Mrs. Umehara, Mrs. Morita and Miss Fukumoto go over the rules and routines with Mr. Miyoshi.

December And January

DECEMBER-JANUARY

Exciting activities claimed many hours of students' time during the year. School was not just work and study, for there were activities to make the school year a happy one. Among the numerous activities was our first Student Body Dance, "Little Star."

How swiftly the year passed by! The fun, triumphs, and heart-breaking experiences prepared our young men and women for unknown adventures awaiting them in the second half of the school year.

The year came to an end with the Xmas assembly, "Mele Kalikimaka, Kalani," which left students in the true yuletide spirit.

GOOD WILL AMBASSADOR

Student Body treasurer, Russell Taba, presents Eric Shinseki some tokens of remembrance, before his departure to Hunterdon High School.

RAH! RAH! RAH!

After a tight game, the boisterous rooters join in on the last yell.

ESSAY WINNER

Melanie Toyofuku and Miss Jones look over the essay, "If I Had Three Wishes to Change the World."

New Challenges Hastened

MUSIC

George Barati, orchestra leader of the Little Symphony Concert, conducts the group with the beloved selection, MALAGUENA.

FRESHMAN DANCE

Freshman Cupids Eloise Tashima and Paul Yukimura are crowned by freshman advisers Mr. Steinohrt and Miss Ackerman.

50TH STATE

With the proclamation of Statehood, senior boys undertake the burial of old Territory of Hawaii.

CHEER UP, PRISCILLA!

Priscilla Texeira is about to burst into tears as the nurse gives her a skin test injection.

ENTERTAINMENT

The Universals perform one of their favorite numbers, "IT'S ONLY THE BEGINNING."

February And March

FEBRUARY-MARCH

George Barati's symphony orchestra visited us in February, much to everyone's enjoyment. Students from neighboring elementary schools shared in the program. Freshman Week was climaxed with a dance, "Friendly Persuasion," at which Eloise Tashima and Paul Yukimura were crowned freshman sweethearts.

Kauai High School served as host to Waimea High School's speech class. Students from both schools participated in the festival held to promote interest in speech.

LAST DANCE

Eager sophomores come to the end of their exciting dance.

SPEECH FESTIVAL

KHS speech students present a skit on science research, with guest speaker Dr. Leo Ostorbrock.

SWEET MUSIC

Chorus girls, under the direction of Mr. Steinohrt, sing "SUMMERTIME."

JUNIOR LUNCHEON

The Juniors enjoy their 50th state luncheon.

OH, HEAVENLY MUSIC!

Members of the court enjoy themselves after the coronation.

APRIL-MAY

These were months of excitement and recognition of royalty. A whirlwind of events dotted the scene, as school drew to a close.

April brought the long-awaited Junior Prom. "April in Paris" was the theme of this gala affair.

May Day: Excitement drew to a high pitch, as the May Day pageant unfolded, finally climaxed with the presentation of the traditional royal Hawaiian court.

May was also the month of the Senior Prom. Girls garbed in exquisite gowns and boys handsomely clad in dinner jackets, danced dreamily to the theme of "Some Echanted Evening."

June signified a month of farewells, as seniors diligently practiced for their oncoming commencement exercises.

THE JOKERS

Clowns Marshal Nakamatsu, Alan Sasaki, Gerald Hashimoto, and Lincoln Takenaka add color and pep to our Raiders Roundup Carnival.

Dearest Edie & Jack

It's been a pleasure to let me sign in your nice annual. I just couldn't believe that school is over again. We have one more year and I hope that we are going to have the same room again. Remembering all the fun that we forgot, it made me look back in the past. Next year we are going to be a "mighty Senior". I hope so!! if we pass this year.

Yeah!! boy, I've got something to tell you. He's coming down this afternoon, and I'm all shook up. Gaps!! I mean a little excited. If you going tonight, wave to me if you see me and, I'll introduce you to him. But don't be surprised, cause you might faint if you see him.

Well, honey, how's your "sweetheart"? I do hope he is all right and I also hope that you're going to answer him soon. Oh! Oh! don't laugh. He's real pitiful. Don't it. Every night he dream of your sweet angel face and kiss you goodnight before he sleep. Although I didn't meet him, I can read it by the way he talks when he write to you that he's really in "love" with you. As for me, mm... I really can't wait to see him.

Well, it seems as if I don't have enough space, so I think I'd better close it. When ever you see me around wave to me and say Hello. Be seeing you tonight and don't dream of him too much!!
Love Always,
Laurie & Jack Castello

Doing what? Loafing

Dear "Eddie,"

Well, what am I going to say. I can just say what I have in mind. Now — don't laugh. hah!
Summer is almost here and I can imagine I am going to have a nice time and I hope you will have a nice time too! I sure was in the same class and I hope next September will be in the same class again. By the way, make sure you keep on writing your one and only one. Take good care of him and he'll take good care of you. Oh! you make me laugh. ha! ha! Well, what ever may be, may be! So long!

Always,
